

Letz Summer 1819

With headquarters established at Nacozdoches, Dr. Long dispatched James Gaines to Salveston to enlist the aid of Lafitte. He said this would end same as Mage expedition & refused. Dr Long started himself to change Lafitte's mind but on the way he got a letter (at the Cooshattie Indian Village near Salveston Bay

Oct. 1819

As a result of the letter, Dr Long turned around & went back toward Nacogdoches. On the way he received news: The Spanish captured Walker's camp and killed David Long, the Doctor's brother.

When Dr Long reached Nacogdoches he found the town deserted. He made for the Sabine R. and

Winter 1819/1820

After fleeing Mexico Dr Long
went to New Orleans to organize a new expedition.
Here he met Col. Benjamin R. Milam, John Austin,
Col. Christy and Don Felix TRES PALACIOS.
4 small boats under Dr. Long's command sailed down the Miss. R. They landed at BOLIVAR POINT where survivors of Dr. Long's 1st expedition found refuge and built a mud
fort. Then Don Felix Trespacios, MILAM, &

chiefly took me deep to TAMPIO, Mexico
to raise an army among the Mexican revolutionaries
while living at River Point, a French merchantman taken with me was shrouded in a haze of Indian gold. 200 CAZACARAS Indians attacked and stole the corn, long pursued them down
a road evidence & knowing of the massacre of French
men had an expectation of Indian and attack
the Indians during the war. The Indians rallied and drew long's French back to River Pt.

Winter 1819/1820

At Belvoir, among Long's men was MORDELLA that tried to organize a conspiracy against Dr. Long.
Dr. Long was informed. Mordella was court martialed and hanged on the East end of Belveston Island.
